

Back to School

It's the first day of school and English teacher Miss Shakespeare has been found murdered in her classroom. The four members of staff who had arrived before 8am when the body was found were asked to account for their movements.

Ms Fitt, the PE teacher, says she was doing an inventory of kit.

Mr Soames says he was marking homework in his Maths classroom.

Dr Dott who works in IT was in the staffroom having a coffee.

The Headteacher, Mrs Mortar, was in her office checking her emails.

Who is your prime suspect?
