

Detectives are appealing for help to solve a recent burglary

The 'Shiny Shiny Gold' jewellery shop on Belton Road has been broken into and a tray of gold rings stolen.

The shop was still closed at the time. Staff arrived at 8.55am and discovered the break in.

Detectives have already begun investigating and now need your help to identify the burglar.

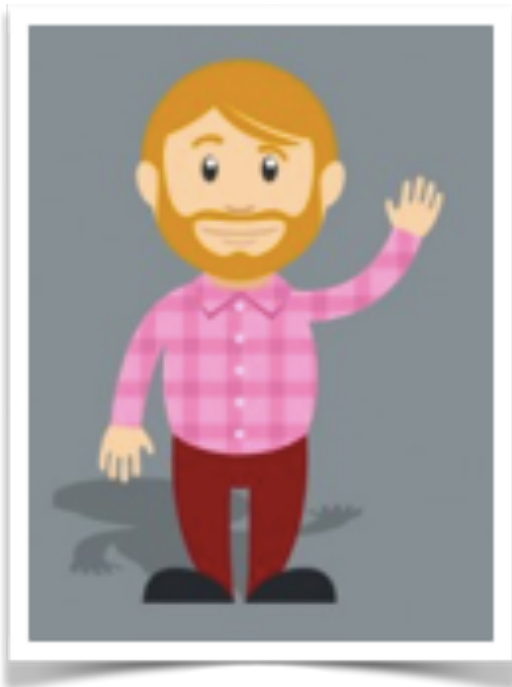

The Scene

The alarm system shows that the shop was broken into at 8.45 am.

The burglar got in by climbing up onto a ledge and opening a trap door on the roof. This ledge is built into the wall. Below it are 27 bricks of 65mm height.

Officers have been to the Dodgy Dealings Cash for Gold shop where they found the stolen rings.

Dodgy Dave from the shop doesn't have cctv. He told officers the following:

" I never met the guy before, how was I to know he was a bad un?.

I run an honest business here.

I paid him in cash by the weight of the gold.

He got a good deal out of me at £40.50 per gram.

I paid him for three rings weighing 2 grams each, five rings each weighing 1 & 1/2 grams and 9 rings that were each a 1/2 gram in weight"

Officers have detained three known burglars in the area
